The Haunting of Hannon II: The Last Voyage of the Flying Dutchman

At the second annual iteration of this special event guaranteed to surprise and thrill, LMU Theatre Arts students haunt the stacks of Hannon Library with scenes from classic and contemporary horror novels as ghostly guides escort you through paranormal literary activity. Tricks and treats will be served.

We are hosting two versions of the program this year; a Friday night event for LMU students, and a Saturday afternoon program geared towards community members and their families (recommended for children ages 10 and older).

Tours will leave the library's department of Special Collections (located on the third floor of the library), approximately every ten minutes. Spots for the performances will be first-come, first-served, with sign-ups starting 30 minutes prior to the first performance on each day. We encourage you to arrive early to guarantee your spot!

Photo of the Month

Join us to celebrate the publication of a seminal collection of essays on one of Los Angeles's cultural treasures, the Watts Towers. This occurs in conjunction with an exhibition of vintage photos of the Towers taken by Seymour Rosen (c) SPACES - Saving and Preserving Arts and Cultural Environments.

Editor Luisa Del Giudice's presentation will examine Sabato Rodia's Watts Towers within the contexts of art and culture.

6:30 p.m. - light reception, book signing, & exhibition viewing, level 3 atrium

7:30 p.m. - program start, Von der Ahe Family Suite

Event is free and open to all. RSVP now!

Hannon Library Book Sale 10/15-10/18

This month we are hosting our second book sale, with all proceeds going towards library collections and programs.

Inventory includes thousands of works to choose from, including biography, philosophy, science, history, social science, art, sports, and travel books.

Most books are priced at $5 hardback / $3 paperback.

The sale will take place in the Von der Ahe Family Suite on the 3rd floor of the library. It is open to all, and includes Saturday hours so that members of the community and alumni can come and park for free.

Check out book sale hours and learn more here.

10/14: Faculty Pub Night with Mel Mendelson, author of Learning Bio-Micro-Nanotechnology

The second Faculty Pub Night of Fall 2014 features Mel Mendelson, Professor of Mechanical Engineering. Mendelson's work explores multidisciplinary understanding among engineering, physics, chemistry, biology, computer science, and ethics. He will provide an introduction into the small world, emphasizing the concepts using analogies and illustrations to simplify the non-observables around us.

Faculty Pub Nights are not just for faculty! all LMU faculty, students, staff, and members of the community are welcome to attend.

10/28 Waiting For Our Souls to Catch Up

Technicolor dream shot of the library posted on Instagram by @myaslm, with the equally delightful caption "How rough can studying be when it's in a library this nice?"

Featured Resource

National Hispanic American Heritage Month is September 15 - October 15.

HAPI (Hispanic American Periodical Index) is an authoritative research resource for worldwide information about Central and South America, Mexico, Brazil, the Caribbean basin, the U.S.-Mexico border region, and Hispanics and Latinos in the United States.

In our frantic world, we all need time to stop and breathe. But how can we nurture our inner beings when the outer world demands so much?

At this special event, Sister Carol Perry, author of Waiting For Our Souls To Catch Up, invites guests to begin a journey of the heart and mind in which a small effort of faith, guided by reason, can yield huge spiritual dividends.

Tuesday 10/28, 7 p.m. / Von der Ahe Suite / Free and open to all.

Donate Blood and Get $10 Off Fines

The fall Center for Service & Action Blood Drive is one week away, and we're delighted to be a partner once again.

Do you have any library fines? If so, get them zapped from your account (up to $10), AND be awesome at the same time. Give blood on October 7, 8, or 9, and bring proof (either a certificate that you tried to donate or your pretty gauze bandage) to the Circulation Desk to get the credit on your library account. Please bring this proof by the end of October.

No library fines? Good on you! We hope you'll give blood, too.
